

Data Protection Commission,

Dublin 2,

Dear Madam or Sir,

Pursuant to article 15 GDPR I requested access to my personal information and I enclose the cover letter Leo Fay of Michael J. Kennedy Solicitors wrote on 27th July 2023. Almost four months have passed since then and I have not received yet “The remainder of the documents...” (see page 2). The rule of Data Protection Commission is extremely precise and says that controllers.....

must respond to the request without undue delay and at the latest within one month of receiving the request. Controllers can extend the time to respond by a further two months if the request is complex or they have received a number of requests from the same individual, but they must still let the individual know within one month of receiving their access request and explain to them why the extension is necessary.

Apart from it, section 10.- (1) (a)...Criminal Justice (Theft and Fraud Offences) Act 2001 is also clear (see page 3)

Dear Madam or Sir, my legal advisors I worked with in United Nations will publish this letter on their platform www.questforjustice.net immediately.

Respectfully,

24th November 2023
